

Artur Rubinstein's film biography, "The Love of Life," has been nominated for an Academy Award. At the Coto Basque yesterday he was assured the votes of the Jimmy Stewarts, the Joshua Logans, and Columbia's Chairman Abe Schneider. It was to Maureen O'Sullivan that Rubinstein said: "I'm never bored. I always find someone worth talking to."